Publish on iPhone, distribute via iTunes,
with the iPhone Publisher from Katana & Katana XL

With over 10,000,000 handsets sold and 500,000,000 applications downloaded, iTunes is a compelling distribution channel. Our publisher allows us to convert and create branded content – magazines, brochures, guides, directories – either exactly as they appear in print or specifically designed for the touchscreen, and SELL them via your own account on iTunes, or via ours.
